The Importance of Confidential Preventive Services
Working Together to Improve Teen Health

Encourage Health Care Independence

Parents, look for opportunities to leave the exam room and talk with your child's doctor to support these important discussions.

Confidential care is good for their health.

© 2019 American Academy of Pediatrics
This work was supported by an unrestricted grant from the Merck Foundation