

PRIMARY TOPICS

These are some of the broad topic areas that CATCH community-based projects address:

Access/Barriers to Health Care	Injury & Violence
ADHD	Learning Disabilities
Adolescent Health	LGBTQ Health
Advocacy	Literacy
Asthma	Medical Home
Autism Spectrum Disorders	Medical-Legal partnership
Behavioral Health	Mental Health
Border Health	Mobile Care
Breastfeeding	Native American Child Health
Care Coordination/Case Management	Nutrition
Child Abuse & Neglect	Oral/Dental Health
Child Care	Overweight & Obesity
Child Development/Developmental Delay	Palliative Care/Hospice
Children of Incarcerated Parents	Parenting/Parent Education
CSHCN/Disabilities	Physical Activity
Crisis Intervention	Pregnancy Outcomes
Culturally Effective Care	Primary Care
Detained and Incarcerated Youth Health	Responsible Sexual Behavior
Diabetes	Rural Health
Disaster Preparedness	SCHIP/Medicaid
Environmental Quality	Enrollment/Outreach/Retention
ER/Urgent Care	School Health
Family Centered Care	School Readiness/Head Start
Family Violence	School Violence
Foster Care	Screening/Detection/Surveillance
General Pediatrics	Sex Education
Health Disparities	Sudden Unexpected Infant Death (SUID)
Health Education & Prevention	STIs
Health Literacy	Substance Use
Hearing	Teenage Pregnancy & Parenting
HIV/AIDS	Tobacco Use
Home Visitation	Transitions
Homeless Care	Urban Health
Immigrant/Migrant/Refugee/Undocumented	Vision Health
Immunization	Well-Child/Well-Baby Care
Infectious Disease	