

Infection Prevention and Control Ambassador Program Highlights

18 Chapter Ambassadors | August 2021 - July 2022

STATE PARTNERSHIPS

Collaborative partnerships formed at the state and local level

IPC CONSULTS

Creating tools and conducting needs assessments

MEMBER ENGAGEMENT

Engaged members and non-members in chapter IPC activities

TRAINING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

Increase understanding of IPC strategies through serving as SME in chapter activities

ADVISORY BOARDS & COMMITTEES

Ensuring pediatric representation is at the table

Infection Prevention and Control Ambassador Program Highlights

ADVISORY BOARDS & COMMITTEES

- Appointed as Chair of School Health for Chapter to support school districts and school-based health clinics | AAP Nevada
- Joined state and local committees | AAP Iowa
- Provides pediatric perspective on healthcare associated infections/antimicrobial resistance (HAI/AR) advisory board | AAP Florida
- State's leading subject matter expert for infection prevention and control as recognized by the Arizona Department of Public Health. Collaborates in state meetings working toward system-level changes | AAP Arizona

IPC CONSULTS

- Developed a Risk Needs Assessment and conducted site visits and education/training events | AAP Rhode Island
- Identified an IPC Consultant | AAP Montana
- Conducted a member survey to identify IPC needs | AAP Louisiana

STATE PARTNERSHIPS

- Identified partnerships and new relationships with the health department and state partners | Accomplished by many chapters!
- Fostered a relationship with the state's Healthcare-Associated Infections Program at the state health department | AAP Arizona
- Expand partnership between chapter and state through contact with the HAI/AR coordinator | AAP Florida
- Connected chapter with the Missouri Bureau of Communicable Disease Control and Prevention | AAP Missouri

MEMBER ENGAGEMENT

- Developed a relationship with fellow ambassador for chapter collaboration | AAP Connecticut and South Carolina
- IPC Ambassador became member of Chapter | AAP Wisconsin
- Helped recruit practices to engage in chapter IPC activities | AAP South Carolina
- Helped increase chapter visibility among non-members regarding pediatric IPC information | AAP California 2
- Engaged rural providers in activities, conducted outreach to the refugee community and translated information into other languages | AAP Maine

TRAINING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

- Served as SME in webinar and town hall | AAP Texas
- Provided a level of understanding of IPC for chapter staff | AAP Missouri
- Created content that included state-specific guidance and actions for improving infection control practices | AAP Illinois
- Created and provided educational webinars for the chapter and answered technical questions | AAP Arkansas