

How Do I complete PREP Self Assessment and Claim Credit

You may refer to the following steps to complete your course and claim credit (Images are samples):

1. Verify the course has been completed in Learning Mode. In order to receive credit, the course needs to be completed in this mode.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar with tabs: Home, Assessment, Answer Sheet, Performance, Confidence, and PREP Pearls. Below the navigation bar, the page title is "All Questions". There is a search bar and a "Question View" dropdown set to "All". A "Reset Assessment" button is visible, along with mode selection options: "Learning" (selected and circled in red) and "Exam". A progress bar shows "1 of 271" questions. Below the progress bar, a green bar displays "ASSESSMENT PROGRESS: Total Questions: 271 Questions Answered: 271 Correct Answers: 66". At the bottom, the text "Question 1" is visible.

2. Verify that there are no unanswered questions and that you have achieved at least a 70% on your course. In order to receive credit, all questions need to be answered and a minimum passing score of 70% is required.

Total Questions	Answered	Unanswered	Correct	Incorrect	% Correct	Pass/Fail
271	271	0	197	74	72.69%	Pass

The "Unanswered" and "% Correct" cells are circled in red. Below the table, there is a welcome message and a list of features:

- Over 200 multiple choice questions including critiques
- Links to many of the references
- Search capabilities, for customizing your experience
- Online submission for credit

Question 275

A 3-month-old infant is brought to your office because he has been very irritable, and feeding poorly over the past 2 days. He vomited once this morning. The infant has had no fever or symptoms of an upper respiratory infection. He is a full-term infant with no significant past medical history and he has been growing and developing appropriately. His mother just returned to work last week and his father, who is unemployed, has been caring for the infant during the day. She thinks that the baby's fussiness may be due to the recent change in his routine.

In your office, the baby's vital signs include a temperature of 37.2°C, heart rate of 160 beats/min, respiratory rate of 36 breaths/min, and pulse oximetry of 96% on room air. On physical examination, the baby is very fussy and the mother is having difficulty consoling him. There are several circular bruises on his right forehead and left forearm. The remainder of his physical examination is unremarkable. His mother denies any history of trauma.

You advise the baby's mother that he should undergo further evaluation in the emergency department because of his

5. You will see options to Notify ABP for MOC credit or Claim CME credit.

The screenshot shows the PREP Self-Assessment website interface. At the top left is the PREP logo with the text 'Self-Assessment Pediatrics Review and Education Program'. At the top right, it says 'Last Login: 11/8/2016 3:51 PM EST' and the American Academy of Pediatrics logo with the tagline 'DEDICATED TO THE HEALTH OF ALL CHILDREN®'. A navigation bar contains links for Home, Assessment, Answer Sheet, Performance, Confidence, and PREP Pearls. The main content area is titled 'Claim Credit' and includes 'Print' and 'Add Bookmark' buttons. It features two success messages: 'You have met the requirements for Maintenance of Certification (MOC)' with a 'Notify' button, and 'You have met the requirements for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit' with a 'Claim' button. Below these is a section for '2016 PREP Self-Assessment Completion requirements:' which lists three steps: 1. Minimum performance level (70% or higher), 2. Learning mode (answer all questions), and 3. Complete course (confirm every question answered). A left sidebar contains various navigation links like 'About PREP 2016', 'ABP Content', 'Specifications Guide', 'PREP Study Group', 'Pediatrics in Review', 'My Assessment History', 'Email Alerts', 'FAQ', 'CME Information', 'Evaluation', 'Claim Credit', 'My Learning Plan', and 'My Bookmarks'.

If you do not see the claim credit links on the top of the claim credit page, please click on the refresh button on your browser.
